

BOURNE GRAMMAR SCHOOL BULLETIN

Week ending Friday 23 March 2018

From Jonathan Maddox, Headteacher

GREASE - First Night

I shall present a full report from the run of Grease next week but, as I write, I am looking forward to Thursday night's performance having been thrilled - as was the entire capacity audience - at Wednesday evening's first night. With music played to an outstanding standard by the student pit-band and a fabulously talented cast, it was obvious from the opening moments that the performance would be spectacular. No tickets remain unsold but a couple of lucky opportunists were able to pick up returns last evening.

NETBALL COACHING - Mrs Mohan, PE

Last week, Bourne Grammar hosted 26 Year 5 and 6 students from Cophill for an afternoon of netball. Miss Hempstead, a former BGS teacher who now teaches at Cophill, accompanied the girls who were to be coached by our talented Sixth Form and Year 10 netball players.

Our students planned their own skill sessions and then coached and umpired the younger students in matches. The afternoon was enjoyed by all and was rounded off with cookies and drinks.

Our netball coaches were:

Year 10 - Evie Price, Amy Webster and Emily Davis

Year 12 - Phoebe Martin, Julia Eglin, Gabby Marechal, Chloe Ladley and Rose Murray

Year 13 - Chloe Prentice

FORTHCOMING EVENTS

Spring Recital Showcase - Thursday 26 April

Spring Recital Showcase is a new musical event that gives some of the School's most talented musicians the opportunity to perform as a soloist in a formal concert setting. It promises to be an evening of the highest quality, with music from composers such as Mozart, Chopin, Brahms and Debussy being performed by students across all year groups.

Tickets are available from www.ticketsource.co.uk/date/462222 - tickets are £7 for adults and £5 for concessions.
