

During the first year of A level French we will watch a film (from the AQA specification)

We will then analyse and evaluate the characters, themes and techniques used by the director.

In the A level exams, in the writing exam, you will have to write an essay of approximately 300 words on the film that we have studied.

Therefore, it is a good idea and good practice to watch a French film (with subtitles if you can) and think about the key characters, themes and techniques.

'Amelie'

A good film to watch is 'Amelie' by Jean-Pierre Jeunet.

If you can't access the whole film, watching short clips on Youtube will also help.

Work through the study guide:

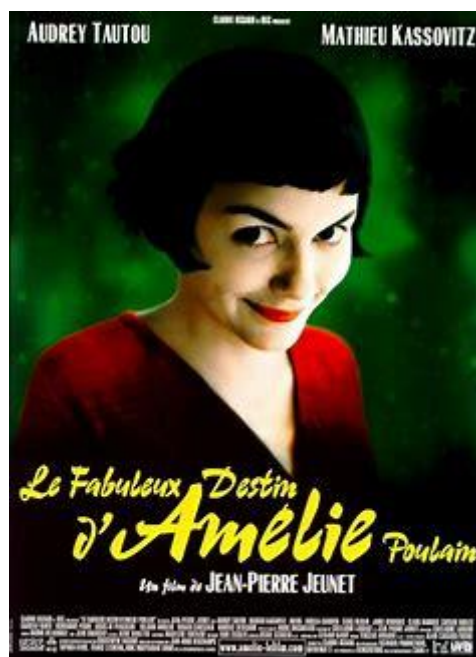

<https://homemcr.org/media/amelie-study-guide/>

Read a synopsis & reviews:

<https://www.imdb.com/title/tt0211915/>

http://www.allocine.fr/film/fichefilm_gen_cfilm=27063.html

<https://www.shmoop.com/study-guides/movie/amelie>

See below for other films you might like.

'Être et avoir'

'L'appartement'

'Un sac de billes'

'Intouchables'

'Les choristes'

'Ne le dis pas à personne'

'Entre les murs'

