

SIXTH FORM DRESS CODE

Great importance is attached to a smart appearance and students are expected to wear correct Sixth Form dress at all times. The dress code for all students is based on formal wear and allows students to maintain individuality. Student dress is important in order to nurture a smart and purposeful learning environment, whilst also providing role models for younger students.

Students may choose from:

- A formal trouser suit paired with shirt and tie
- A formal trouser/skirt suit paired with a blouse
- Tailored blazer and trousers with shirt and tie
- Tailored blazer and trousers with a blouse
- Tailored blazer or cardigan and skirt/dress
- Skirts must be below the fingertips when standing
- Shoes or boots must be formal (e.g. brogues, small heeled shoes, flat shoes or Dr Martin type shoes). Shoes or boots should be of a dark neutral colour. e.g. black, brown or dark grey. If worn, sandals need to be strapped to the ankle.
- Jumpers without logos are permitted over a shirt and tie, or blouse, in addition to the blazer
- Students are not permitted to wear coats during lessons
- Tattoos must be covered
- Piercings are allowed, but not: nose rings, eyebrow piercings, ear tunnels or tapers
- Hair must be of a natural colour – if dyed it must resemble a natural hair colour
- Lanyards must be worn at all times whilst on the school site. A charge will be made for a replacement lanyard.

Clothes/items that are not permitted:

- Tops with thin straps
- T-shirts
- Crop tops which expose the midriff
- Overt logos on any items of clothing
- Joggers, hoodies, leggings, shorts or sweatpants
- Denim or leather clothing
- Over the knee socks
- Casual footwear including: trainers, flip-flops, canvas shoes and boots (e.g. Vans, Converse type)

Websites and shops recommended by our sixth formers for high quality, yet fashionable, business attire:

- H&M, ASOS, M&S, Next, New Look, Primark, Depop/Vinted

Where a student is in any doubt over the suitability of any item of clothing, or aspect of the Sixth Form Dress Code, they are strongly advised to take the advice of a member of the Sixth Form Team before making a purchase.
